Date December 7, 2010

YOUR RIGHTS WILL BE AFFECTED. You should read these papers carefully and discuss them with your attorney. If you disagree with any provision of this plan or any motion made below, you must file with the bankruptcy court a timely written objection. Unless a written objection is filed before the deadline stated in the Notice of Chapter 13 Bankruptcy Case, Meeting of Creditors and Deadlines, the court may grant the motion(s) and confirm the plan without further notice or hearing.

VALUATION OF SECURED CLAIMS AND DETERMINATION OF INTEREST RATE. With respect to secured claims listed in paragraphs 3.A and 3.B, the value of such creditor's collateral shall be that set forth in the Value column of paragraph 3.A and the Proposed Secured Claim Amount in paragraph 3.B, unless an objection to confirmation of this plan is timely filed. The filing of a proof of claim asserting a different value will not be deemed to constitute an objection. If the columns for Value or the Proposed Secured Claim Amount are left blank, the allowed secured claim amount shall be determined using the applicable provisions of the Bankruptcy Code and Bankruptcy Rules (hereinafter the "Claim Allowance Process"). The interest rate to be paid on any secured claim shall be that set forth in the plan unless an objection is timely filed.

ALLOWANCE OF OTHER CLAIMS. The amount of all other allowed claims to be paid through the Plan shall be determined pursuant to the Claims Allowance Process, unless a timely objection to the plan is filed. However, creditors must timely file a proof of claim before the Trustee will disburse on any allowed claim under the confirmed plan.
